

How in tension are
the data sets?

How consistent are
the data sets?

How unexpected is the recovered value of $\log R$?

